MAROON LOG

Foreword

"Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die."

Tennyson's "Ulysses"

Our ship of Life will soon push off on its voyage across the ruthless sea of Time. We search for a new and better world. Our hopes and ambitions guide the ship to unknown ports.

The compass that will hold our ship on its true course is knowledge. This compass was obtained for a small price, but its value is priceless.

Our cargo is experience, though it is somewhat limited for a long voyage. More supplies may be obtained at ports along the way.

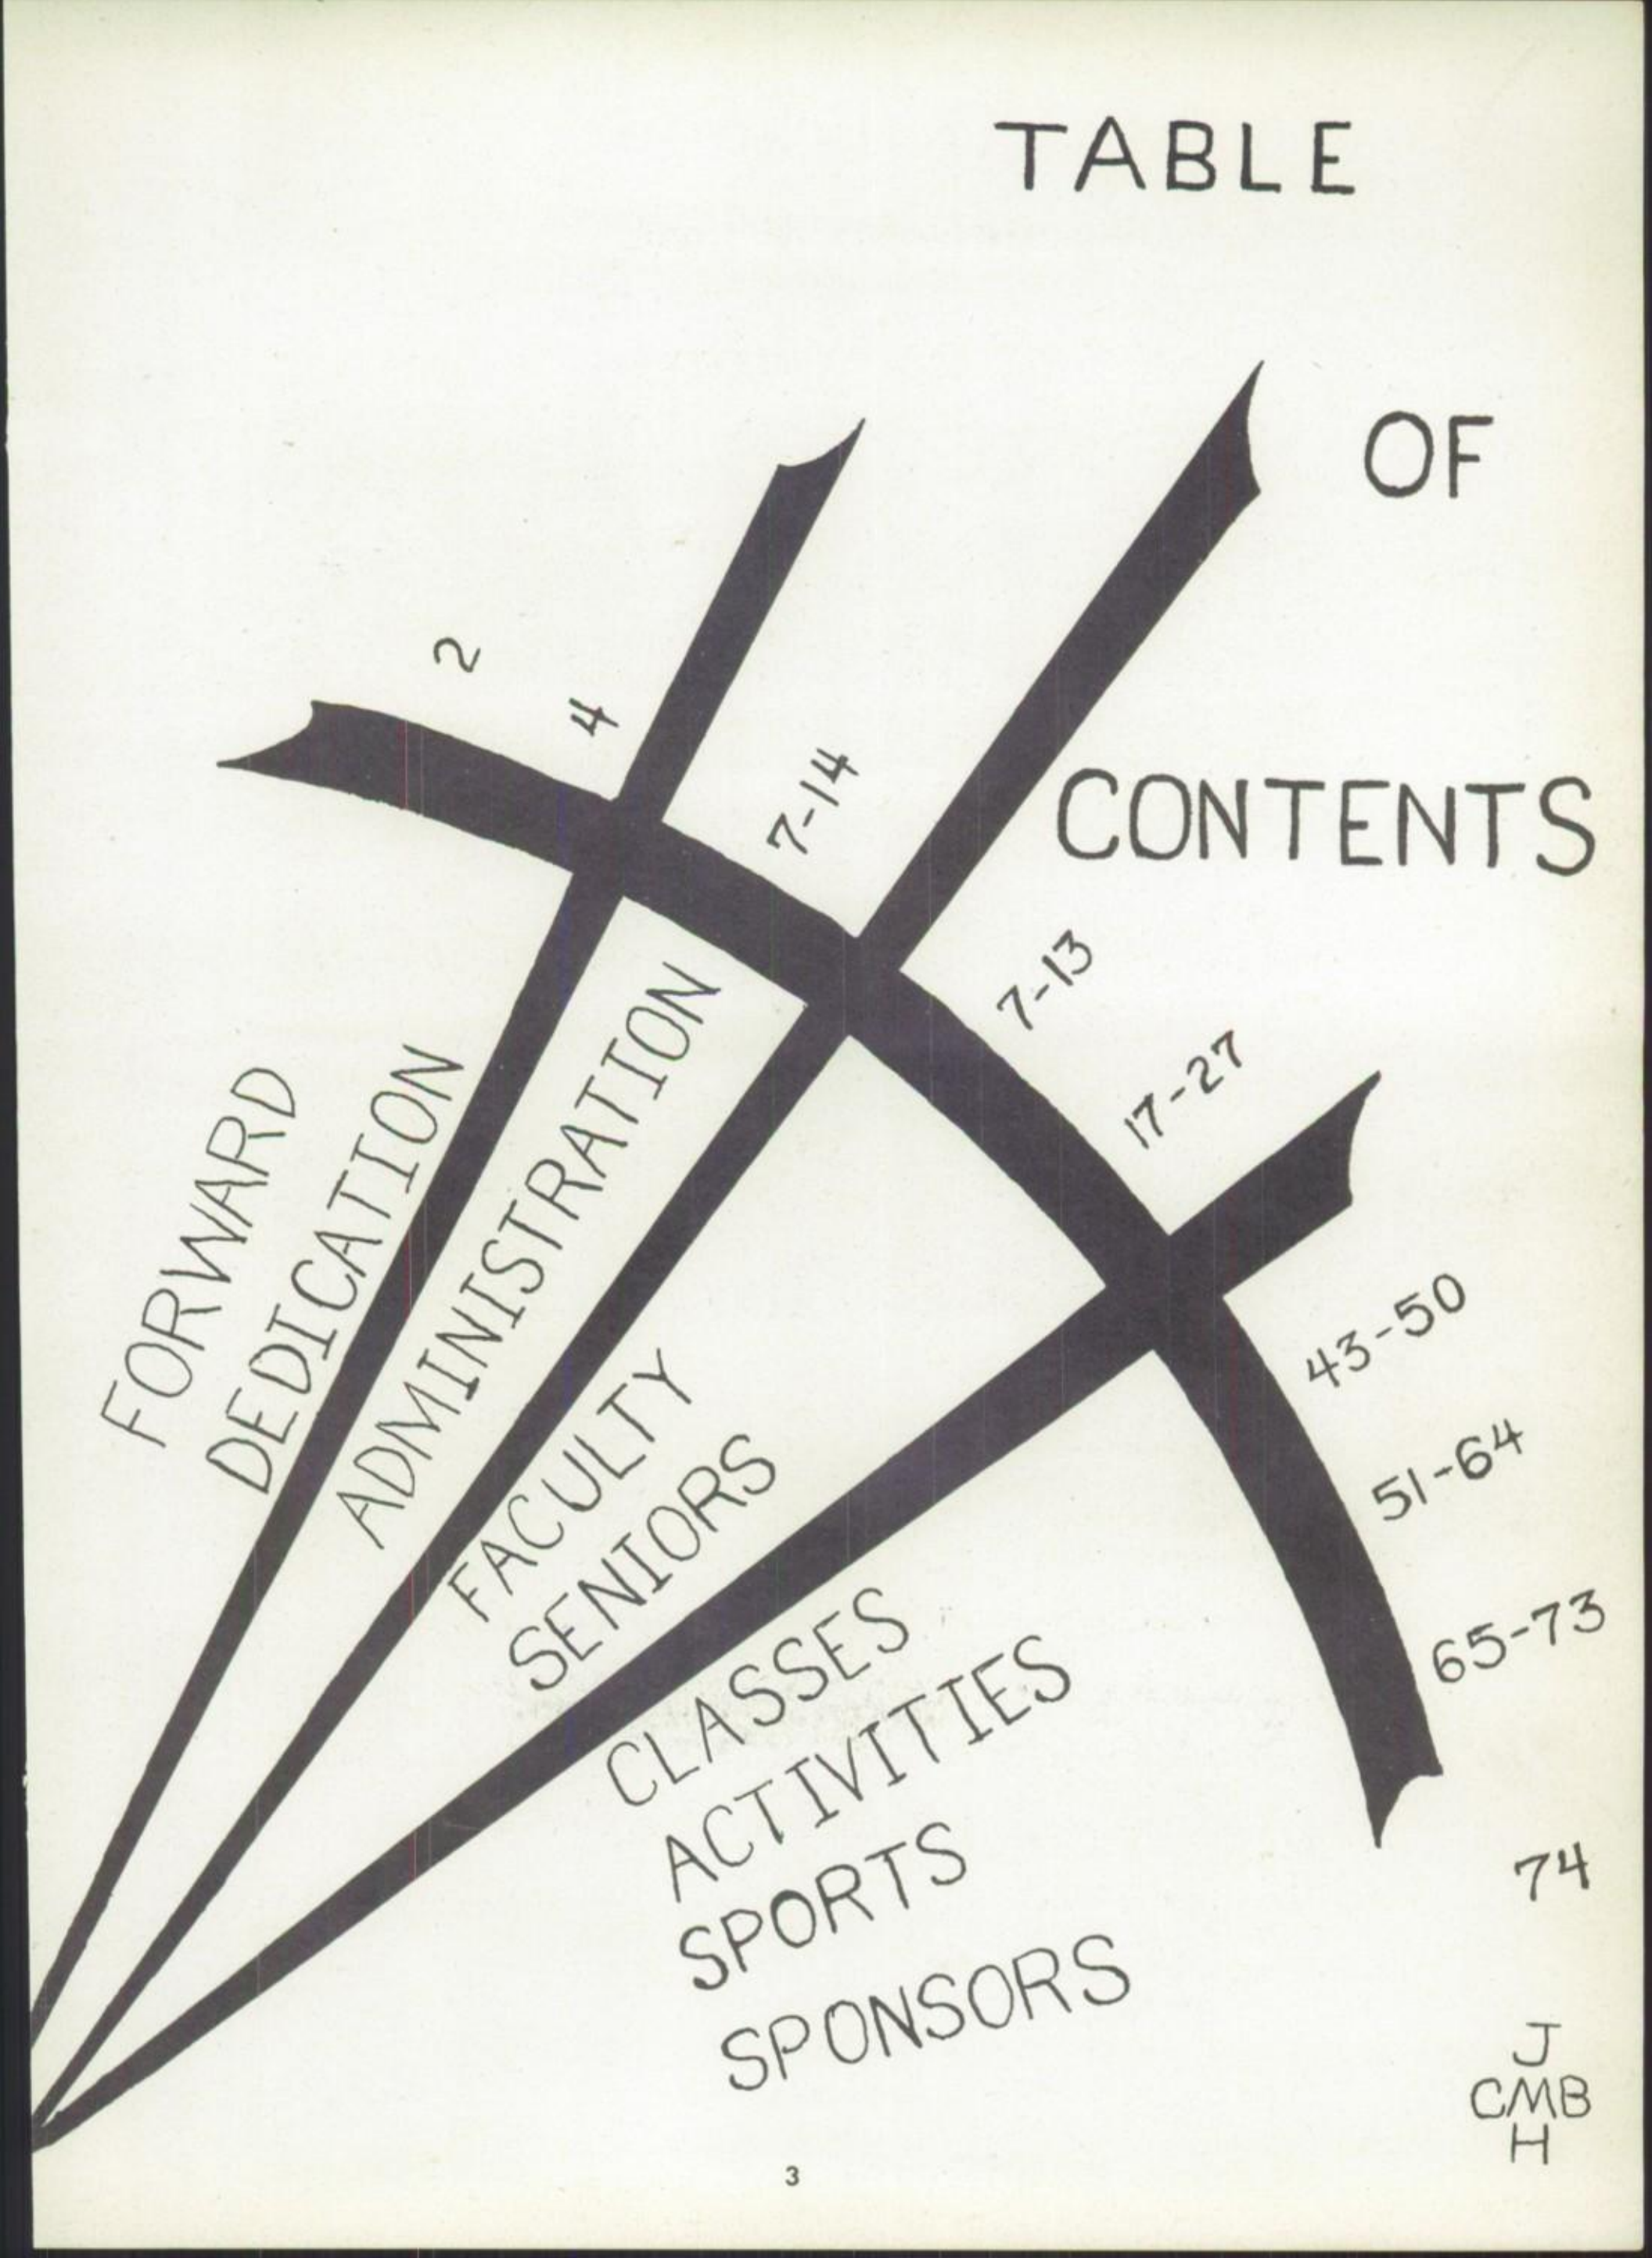
Our ideals have been instilled in us by our superiors. These ideals will help to create a determination to remain on our courses, even when the strongest storm may endeavor to alter it.

Our hopes are boundless; our spirits are high as we set about preparing our departure for the next port.

Before we depart, we wish to record the events of the years at the port of Frankfort-Schuyler Central School in the ship's "Log."

With this end in view, we, the class of 1958, leave the MAROON LOG as a memorandum of past activities and experiences.

TABLE OF CONTENTS



Dedication

With the highest esteem, we, the class of '58, are proud to dedicate the MAROON LOG to Mr. Joseph Campo.

Your untiring and unyielding efforts to make our team the strongest opponent in the Mohawk Valley are deeply appreciated. Your sportsmanlike attitude has set a fine example both to the team and the student body. This attitude has helped immeasurably to raise our school's prestige.

By being a friend to "your boys", you have encouraged them to work hard toward winning two Mid-State Championships. But even more than that, it is your high standards that have won our admiration and respect.

Mrs. Graves

Before leaving F.S.C.S., we, the class of 1958, would like to express our most sincere appreciation to Mrs. Theresa Graves for the time, interest, and patience she has shown to us.

Our future lives will be enriched by her endeavors to help us develop into young adults.

With the deepest admiration and respect for you, Mrs. Graves,

We Thank You

Class History

After terrorizing the halls of FCS in Junior High, we went on to be the best Freshman Class this school has ever known. Our officers were: President, George Luther; Vice-President, Verna Favat; Secretary, Frank La Puma, and Treasurer, Steve Gurski. Mr. Copeland and Mrs. Castronovo were our advisors. As freshmen, our class sponsored the first and last Twirp Dance ever held in the Frankfort-Schuyler Central School. Another of our achievements was the sponsoring of the Freshman Hop. We realized how extraordinary the members of the class of 1958 were when one of its members, Freda Serway, became one of the few freshmen to ever make Varsity Cheerleading. Our May Day attendants were Carol Parkola and Sandra Fresco. At the termination of our Freshman year, we found ourselves at Caroga Lake for a class picnic.

After giving our Freshman teachers a few more gray hairs, we gave them a two-month summer vacation and came back in the fall as Sophomores. Our class officers were: President, Carol Parkola; Vice-President, Frank LaPuma; Secretary, George Luther, and Treasurer, Jeanette Rappa. Our advisors were Miss Rupert and Mr. Copeland. Our May Day attendants were Cinda Valente and Cecilia Gillette. Again, showing the versatility of the Sophomore Class, Phyllis Sgroi, Mary Dempsey, Cinda Valente made Varsity Cheerleading. An event which occurred during our Sophomore year was that a new superintendent joined our school system, and at the same time, we obtained a new member to our class, the Superintendent's daughter, Joan. Again, at the end of the year we found ourselves basking in the sun at Caroga Lake. The end of our Sophomore year was the turning point in our history. We became adults!

In our Junior year, we decided that now was the time to start thinking of our future. We anticipated the fact that we would need quite a sum of money in our Senior year. So, we sold boxes of candy and held a spaghetti supper. With this, we set a precedent for all underclassmen to follow in the giving of spaghetti supper. With this, we set a precedent for all underclassmen to follow in the giving of spaghetti suppers. One of the most exciting moments of our Junior year was the wearing of our class rings. The officers of our Junior Class were: President, Michael Mazzola; Vice-President, Edward Lints; Secretary, Rita Juteau, and Treasurer, Carol Parkola. Our advisors were Mr. Chuff and Miss Perritano. Our May Day attendants were Rita Juteau and Evelyn Bristol. Again, our Cheerleaders were: Mary Dempsey, Phyllis Sgroi, and Georgianna Dee, who made Varsity. Rita Juteau, Lonnell Hakes, and Cecilia Gillette were our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. Through the efforts of the Junior boys, the team was able to acquire the title of Mid-State Champs. We liked Caroga Lake so much that we went there again at the end of our Junior year.

After our Junior year, came the most important year in our lives, our Senior year. Our class officers this year are: President, Philomena Ortello; Vice-President, Joe Cristiano; Secretary, Cinda Valente, and Treasurer, Rachel Zaffarano. Our advisors are: Mrs. Graves and Miss O'Neill. We realized again, in our Senior year, as we had in our Junior year, the overwhelming need to have enough money in the treasury to finance a trip at the end of the year. Our first project was a dance which featured Lou Barille as master of ceremonies. Then, we sold Christmas cards and all-occasion cards which netted us $466. About this time, the Senior Play came around. We did something that no other class has done. Students canvassed door to door selling tickets for our play, "Hobgoblin House". As a result, we netted the biggest profit ever made on a Senior Play - $485. And, as in the past three years, we again had Varsity Cheerleaders, namely, Cecilia Gillette, Rita Juteau, Lonnell Hakes, and Carol Catlin, who cheered our football team, (Carl Corriggio, George Luther, Ed Lints, Howard Charbonneau, George Sylvester, Michael Mazzola, Raymond Krick, Richard Krick, Donald Bristol, Paul Puleo, Tommy Maneen, Anthony LaMonica, Roy Swiger, Frank LaPuma, and Joe Loiacano) on to becoming Mid-State Champions. The Senior - Junior Prom was a fitting climax to one of the most extraordinary classes that F.S.C.S. has ever seen.

As the dawn of graduation day approaches, we can hear the teachers saying, "There'll never be another class like that of 1958."

Class Will

We, the class of 1958, being of sound mind do ordain and establish this, our last will and testament:

Catherine App leaves her position as hall monitor to Joanne Puleo.
Carolyn Baldwin wills her art ability to John Delia.
To John Luggerio Jim Barnett leaves his ability to baffle teachers, especially Mrs. Graves.
DeAnne Boudry leaves her reticence to Linda De Mare.
Evelyn Bristol leaves her academic ability to Rosalie Nicastro.
Don Bristol leaves a brain and a half to Ruth Markle.
Gladys Brownrigg leaves her position in lunch line to Margaret Cook.
To his sister Barbara, Brian Bunce leaves the family name.
Nancy Callahan leaves her book "How to Gain Weight in Ten Easy Lessons" to Sandra Shannon. Here's hoping you have more success.
Rita Castellano leaves her seat in Terzo's to Patty Gatto.
Carol Catlin leaves her gift of gab to Judy Kinney.
Leonard Cavanaugh leaves his seat in mechanical drawing to Charlie Campione.
Howie Charbonneau leaves his luck at Charbonneau's Casino to Joe Green. Hope you don't lose as much as Howie did.
Typing class is left to Martha McCullen by Jim Christensen.
Carl Corriggio wills his athletic ability and height to Chet Schmidt.
Diane Cress's special pot and pan in the homemaking room is left to Roseanne Passante.
The ability to write excuses and get away with it is bequeathed by Phil Chuff to Dennis Van Dusen.
Joe Cristiano bequeaths his powers of persuasion with teachers to Sara Pandolf.
Georgianna Dee leaves her driver license to Phyl Chard.
Mary Dempsy leaves her position in "Sweetheart's Digest" to Florence Farouche.
Joe Di Gristina leaves his FFA jacket to Chuck Fresco.
Dick Farrell's knack of chewing gum is left to Jim Di Camillo.
The nickname "Einstein" is bequeathed to Bernice Nedzynski by Carol Favat.
Mary Ann Rolchigo is willed Verna Favat's locker combination. Here's hoping you'll have more luck with this one, Mary Ann.
George Feduccia leaves the title of "Hot Rodder" to Joe A. Belmont.
Sandra Fresco's position on Munger's Fashion Board is left to Rosalie Castilla.
Phil Balio is willed Cecilia Gillette's diminutive stature.
Her position on the Varsity Cheering Squad is left to Dot Schmidt by Lonnell Hakes.
Vivian Manno inherits Doreen Graves' fidelity to the band.
Joan and Joanne Hall leave their family relationship to Jan and Charles Ludwig.
Pat Inserra is bequathed Margaret Hatton's position on the library staff.
Albert Henrickson leaves his guitar to Bob Perry.
Joanne Collins luckily inherits Joanne Henrickson's beautiful blue eyes.
Jim Hocking's musical talent is left to Sam Tucci.
Lorraine Jones wills her blond hair to Pat Bunce.
Rita Juteau leaves for the Navy.
Tony Ruggerio is bequeathed Henry Kinney's cute crewcut.
Ray Krick's position on the football team is willed to Joe Grates.
Richard Krick leaves his position on the basketball team to Bob Barrett.
Clayton Croasmun inherits Wayne Kusienski's good looks.
Tony La Monica wills his ability to talk about abstract ideas to Phil Farouche.
Mary Tucker inherits Frank La Puma's powers of leadership.
John Latella's love of pastries is left to Joe Gillette.
Terry Hennessey is granted Joe Loiacano's ability to duck doorways.
Ed Lints has decided to give lessons to Andy Romano on "How to Become Acquainted with Girls."

Butch Luther bestows his position on the football team to his brother, Don. (Think you can fill his shoes?)
Tom Maneen's license for hunting two-legged doe is granted to Dave Hughes.
Joe Evola inherits Mike Mazzola's ability to converse in Italian.
Joan Murphy bequeaths her naturally wavy hair to Marie Simonette.
Gail Hughes is granted Ray Zaffarano's short bob.
Paul Puleo donates six inches to Ken Schmidt.
Dave Russell's swift, vivacious ways are granted to Dave Rosbrook.
Donna Mathews is granted Fourth Avenue and all that goes with it from Phyl Sgroi.
Ken Caldwell is left Henry Sharo's skill in planting trees for Agriculture class.
Roy Swiger leaves his fiery temper to Jack Consilio. There are plenty of ice cubes in the Home Economics refrigerator!
Pete Valent leaves "Valent's Farm Manual" to Gordon Hight.
Helen Valente inherits her sister Cinda's ability to baffle Senior boys.
Bill Van Nort leaves his quiet ways in the halls of FSCS to Roy Smith.
Joanne Bommarito is bequeathed Stan Wolanski's seat on the bus.
Phil Ortello bequeaths her skills in business to Ann Peters.
Margaret Mack bequeaths her quiet manner to Evelyn Falcone.
Ro Grizzuto inherits Joanne Onofaro's beautiful voice.
Phyllis Bono is bequeathed Carol Parkola's good looks.
Jeanette Rappa wills her glasses to Brian Frank. "Now you can get a better look at the Junior girls."
Mike Sciortino leaves his car to Joe P. Belmont. Now you can deliver newspapers faster, Joe.
Vincent Adams inherits Joanne Spohn's incredible ability to ruin the lab.
George Sylvester wants to show some of his jitterbug steps to Gerald Voltz. Think you'll need them, Gerry?
We will to the Freshman class the pains of growing up.
We give the Sophomores the patience to bear up under the abuse of the Juniors.
The Senior class leaves Mrs. Graves with a sigh of relief.
To the faculty we give a few moments of quiet and rest before they have to cope with the Juniors.

Class Prophecy

The Class of '58 will go down in FSCS history as being one of the liveliest that has ever graduated from its hallowed halls. The students who graduated from this class are certain to achieve the highest possible goals in life. We take the liberty of making prophecies concerning their future.

Catherine App and Mary Dempsey recently opened a school for juvenile delinquents. The parents of these children are members of the former class of '58.

Brian Bunce and Joe DiGristina, patrolmen on the new Arterial Highway, have caught many speedsters, among them Richard Farrell.

James Barnett on his recent mission to the Middle East, as ambassador to Iran, claims that Leonard Cavanaugh has struck oil for the 100th time.

Bumpy Chuff has completed and now has in operation, his Home for Lonesome Dogs.

Having correctly answered his final question, Donald Bristol is the winner of the $64,000 Question.

As tax collector for Uncle Sam, Howard Charbonneau claimed $63,999. Taxes are really rising.

Carol Catlin, now a member of the famed Rocquettes of New York City, was visited by Carolyn Baldwin, owner of Vernon Ups and Downs.

Having completed a trip to California as airline hostess, Diane Cress and Nancy Callahan stopped to see Carl Corriggio, star football player at Ohio State, in a game against Notre Dame.

Evelyn Bristol, Miss America of 1960, has settled down to the normal and quiet life of the contented housewife.

Georgianna Dee, has reopened our great theater in Frankfort. She has also been responsible for having rebuilt two "Frankfort, Town With a Future," signs which had rotted away.

DeAnne Boudry and Gladys Brownrigg are representing the Class of '58 on the first trip to the moon in a rocketship. This ship was designed and built by James Christensen.

As you know, Joseph Cristiano now owns a chain of Palmer Houses across the United States, and his business manager is none other than Verna Favat.

George Feduccia is now condctor of the famous BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Do you recognize that new Conover model? You're right, it is Sandra Fresco, now a model for Vogue, Seventeen, and Charm Magazines.

Doreen Graves is now bookkeeper and girl Friday to the college professor, Michael Mazzola.

Cinda Valente, Carol Parkola, and Cecilia Gillette have formed The Associated Secretaries of America, which is striving for higher wages (at least $200 a week) and all new electric equipment for offices.

Margaret Hatton gave up her brilliant career in the field of teaching for the stage. She is now playing the lead in SOUTH PACIFIC.

Albert Henrickson has just been awarded the Nobel Prize for his great achievements in the field of chemical engineering. The President of the United States, David Russell, made the award.

Now featured at Carnegie Hall is the famous ballerina, Joanne Henrickson, doing the life of Pavlova.

Since the retirement of Harry James as trumpet player, James Hocking has been named first in this field.

Lorraine Jones is now the executive secretary to the heads of the Mayo Clinic, the Hall twins, Joan and Joanne.

Rita Juteau, married to Admiral Louis Yashinski, is now swabbing the decks of her husband's yacht.

The new owner and manager of the New York Yankees is our old school chum, Henry Kinney.

Richard and Raymond Krick, who once worked on the State Highway, have been contracted to build an ultra-modern canal from San Francisco Bay to the Saint Lawrence Seaway.

Wayne Kusienski is still playing the Latin Lover but now is being paid for it by Metro Golden Mayer.

Anthony LaMonica, with the help of his geometry, at last has proved that there was a flaw in Einstein's Theory of Relativity.

Frank LaPuma, a former President of the Student Council, is now President of the United States Council of Defense, from one battleground to another.

Now we see a former classmate popping capsules into an oven. It's John Latella, and his new discovery -- INSTANT BREAD.

Ed Lints has just completed the blueprinting of the International Bridge, which spans the ocean from San Francisco Bay to Honolulu, Hawaii.

If you are ever in Las Vegas, drop in to see Joe Loiacano, who owns the "El Cardo" gambling casino.

George Luther has turned professional football player and now plays for the Cleveland Browns.

At the Indianapolis Speedway, you'll find Margaret Mack racing with the best. She already has won it twice due to her excellent instruction at FSCS.

Thomas Maneen has won great fame as a man's hair-stylist. He is now known as the great "Thomas."

In deep dark Africa, we see Joann Onafaro, now a missionary civilizing the pigmies.

Atfter taking only two years of French from Miss Ingro, Phil Ortello has become the new ambassador to France for the United States.

Paul Puleo has been promoted from working on jet blades, to a jet test pilot for the Department of Defense of the United States.

Jeanette Rappa is now running her own chain of Slenderella Beauty Salons.

Michael Sciortino is the discoverer of that new and famous mixed drink that is sweeping the country, Sy-Dinglet.

Phyllis Sgroi has just taken over Mrs. Reina's place in FSCS as the Math Teacher.

The billionaire Henry Sharo owes his success to the knowledge acquired in agriculture class, which started his famous farming career.

Joann Spohn is now a dietician at Bellvue Hospital in New York City.

Roy Swiger has just recorded a song that has sold 10 million copies, the name--"There'll Never Be Another Me."

Newly elected Governor of New York State is our own George Sylvester. He is fittingly called "Honest George."

Peter Valent, owner of Mercury Motor Sales, has just sold his umpteenth car due to the help of his trusty advertising agent, Rita Castellano.

William Van Nort is now private secretary to the secretary to the Secretary of the Interior, STANLY WOLANSKI.

After reading the book, CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN, Rachel Zaffarano decided to see for herself if the title had any truth to it. It did!

Joan Murphy has become the first Superintendent of Nurses in the brand new, ultramodern hospital that has been erected in Frankfort.

Doctor Carol Favat has just opened her clinic for cardiac patients, having Lonnell Hakes as her surgical nurse.

Football

The Frankfort - Schuyler football team, as well as Coach Joseph Camp, has proved effective for the second straight season. The Maroon Knights were undefeated due to a powerful forward wall, coached by Frank "Chico" Sanders, consisting of LE-Carl Corriggio; LT-Paul Puleo; LG-Butch Sylvester and Joe Gruzzuto; Center, Roy Swiger; RG-Howie Charbonneau; RT-Joe Green and Joe Loiacano; RE-Don Bristol and Ray Krick. Combining this line with a fleet-footed backfield of QB-Don Luther, RH-Tom Maneen; LH-Geo. Chard; FB-Butch Luther, the Maroon Knights rolled over their opponents yielding only 31 points to a total score of 106 points. Games with Richfield Springs and Dolgeville were cancelled because of the flu epidemic. There were 15 seniors on the varsity, including the reserve strength of Anthony LaMonica, Mike Mazzola, Dick Krick and Frank LaPuma.
